The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 25. 1702.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Aug. 29.

Madrid, Aug. 10.

UPON the Arrival of an Express from Italy, with the News of the Defeat of 3 Regiments of the Imperialists at Santa Vittoria; The Queen receiv'd the Compliments of the Nobility, and Cardinal Portocarero order'd Te Deum to be Sung with great Solemnity, and all other Expressions of Joy were shewn, that are usual on such Occasions.

From the Paris Gazette, Dated Aug. 26.

Rome, July 1. On the 30th of last Month Prince Borghese Ambassador Extraordinary from the K. of Spain, had a Publick Audience, to thank the Pope for the Legation of Cardinal Barberini: He was dress'd in a Spanish Habit, and attended by a great number of Gentlemen that were cloath'd in the same Fashion, and above 100 Servants in Liveries; His Coaches were very rich, and He was accompany'd by 80 Prelates, and several others, of the most Considerable Persons of this Court. Since the Duke of Sermoneta's sudden departure, the Pope has order'd the Criminal Process that was commenc'd against him to be carry'd on; for that in contempt of the Apostolical Constitutions, he had pick'd up and arm'd Vagabonds and disorderly Persons, within the Territories of the Church; and for that he had withdrawn himself, notwithstanding the Commands of his Holiness frequently reiterated to him to abide in Rome. In consequence of this Prosecution, Citations have been formally made before his Palace, and in the Fief of Cisterna; by which he is Summon'd to appear within the term prescrib'd; in default of which, he will be condemn'd to loss of Life and Estate.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Aug. 29.

Vienna, Aug. 16. The levying of 15000 Men for Recruits is carry'd on diligently, and 'tis hop'd will be compleated by the end of October, to be sent to the several Regiments. The States of the Lower Austria are assembled, to consult of raising their Contingent within the time propos'd. And 'tis said that most of the Imperial Hereditary Provinces have resolv'd to hire what they are to furnish, of some foreign Princes, that they may be Ready the sooner. The Emperor has given the Regiment of Dragoons of Dietrichstein, to Count Trautmansdorf.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, Dated Aug. 28.

Ratisbon, Aug. 17. On Monday last, the Envoy of the Elector of Mentz propos'd to the Deputies of the Diet to proceed in their Deliberation about the Empire's Declaring War against France, in pursuance of the instances that had been made to the Assembly on that Subject by Cardinal Lamberg, his Imperial Majesty's chief Commissioner. But some Deputies alledging anew, That they had not yet receiv'd sufficient Instructions; it was represented that the Diet had already consented to a Delay for the coming of such Instructions; that the greatest part of the Deputies had receiv'd theirs long ago, and that to keep Matters longer in Suspence, would be very Prejudicial to the Empire. Whereupon it was resolv'd to wait the Arrival of the two first Imperial Posts, and then to begin their Deliberations without further delay.

Frankfort, Aug. 20. The Elector of Mentz arriv'd here with his Court at 10 a Clock this Morning. In the Afternoon, The Elector and Electress Palatine came hither likewise, attended by 300 Horse, and alighted at the Palace of the Knights of the Teutonic Order, which was put in order for their Reception. These 2 Electors are to treat each other by turns to Day and to Morrow, and the next day they will part; the Elector of Mentz for his Capital City, and the Elector Palatin for Weinheim in the Bergstrat, where he will continue some time, and then go to Heidelberg. Our Deputies set forward Yesterday to compliment the King of the Romans upon his happy Arrival in the Camp before Landau. And to day Prayers have been made in all the Protestant Churches of this City for the Preservation of his Sacred Person, and for the good Success of the Campaign. Our Magistrates are going to send to the Camp before Landau 2 Pieces of Cannon more (with a great quantity of Ammunition) along with 4 other great Guns which are furnish'd by the Marquis of Bareith, and arriv'd 2 days ago by the way of Bamberg.

Maeſtricht, Aug. 23. The Province of Luxembourg, and part of Brabant, together with the Country lying between the Sambre and the Meuse; have sent Deputies hither, to treat with the Commissioners of the States General, about the Contributions that have been demanded of them on pain of Military Execution. Monsieur de la Motte, a Captain of an Independent Company that is in Garrison here, being advanc'd to other day a little too far into the Spanish Brabant, fell into an Ambush of 500 Peasants, who rescued out of his hands some Hostages, 200 Horses and other Booty which he was bringing hither, wounded and took the Captain himself, and sent him Prisoner to Brussels; But the same Peasants, and others in those Quarters, have offer'd to pay his Ransom themselves, for fear of having their Villages burnt. Another of our Parties that had been pretty far into the Enemy's Country likewise, has brought off 70 Horses and several Hostages, among them a Rich Merchant of Brussels nam'd Kerps, who was out a Hunting near his Country House.

Falmouth, Aug. 20. This day arriv'd here the Spanish Alliance Pacquet-boat from Lisbon, and reports, That our Grand Fleet was off of that Harbour the 9th instant, standing towards Cadiz.

Plimouth, Aug. 21. On the 19th arriv'd here the Ipswich from Portsmouth, with Money to Pay the Dock, and 4 Prefs-Ketches Bound hither. The Speedwell of Rye is arriv'd here from Portsmouth with Hemp for the Dock, and 9 Vessels from Poole with Corn.

Harwich, Aug. 21. The Milford Frigate is come in here to re-fit, and 50 Sail of Light Colliers wait here for a Convoy to Newcastle.
